21st March 1956] [Sri S. S. Kolkebail]

That is the observation of the Government, Sir. If only the Government . . . (Interruption) had introduced a kind of compulsory system among medical graduates who seek Government servise, then we can certainly solve this dearth of doctors in rural parts.

DEPUTY SPEAKER: The hon. Member's time is over. I have to announce to the House that to-morrow (22nd March 1956). after question hour, the Hon. Minister for Agriculture will reply on Demand XXIII—Labour including Factories and then the hon. the Leader of the Opposition will wind up the debate on ' Medical ' and ' Public Health ', i.e., Demands XVI, XVII and XXXVII and the Hon. Minister for Health will reply afterwards. Then, Demands XXI and XXXIX, viz., ' Industries and Cinchona ' and ' Capital Outlay on Industrial Development ' will be taken up.

The House will now adjourn and meet again to-morrow at 9 a.m.

The House then adjourned.
